

Quantity Surveyors International

invites you to join us for an online CPD event

Forensic Delay Analysis

Thursday, 6 October 2022
0800 – 0900 UK time

Delay-related disputes occur frequently in construction, yet practitioners continue to debate how concurrent delays should be analysed and allocated between parties. Alan will give an overview of the forensic investigation of project delay in the construction and engineering sectors, examining methods used to identify and quantify delays and concurrent delays, and explains the different principles that apply in claims for extension of time and prolongation costs in cases of concurrent delay.

Presented by Dr Alan Whaley BSc (Hons) LLM APA Dip (Adj) Dip (ED) PhD MCIOB
FRICS FCI Arb MAE RICS Accredited Expert Witness

Alan is a leading forensic delay analyst who regularly testifies as expert witness in adjudication, arbitration and litigation proceedings. He is a member of the RICS Panel of expert witnesses in the UK and MENA Region. He holds a doctorate in construction claims management and lectures on construction law, claims and forensic delay analysis to practitioners across the globe.

Bookings and Enquiries: To reserve places for yourself and your colleagues at this free event, please email cpd@theqsi.co.uk

Quantity Surveyors International (QSi) is the professional body for those specializing in the financial aspects of construction and engineering. We are a non-profit making and truly international organisation with members spanning the globe. Our objective is to support and protect the character, status and interest of the profession of Quantity Surveying. For more information please visit our website at www.theqsi.com.